The Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 (s67) makes provision for Health and Safety Representatives to attend a one day refresher course once in each year. This course is approved by WorkSafe Victoria as refresher training under the Act. It will provide participants with the opportunity to update their health and safety knowledge including any changes to the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 and the Occupational Health and Safety Regulations 2017.

The topics covered include:

Interpreting the OHS legislative framework and its relation to the HSR	Identifying key parties and their legislative obligations and duties
Establishing representation in the workplace	Participating in consultation & issue resolution
Representing designated work group members in any OHS risk management process undertaken by employers	Exercising the powers of a HSR under the OHS Act

Training entitlement:

An employer must if requested by a HSR (or deputy HSR) allow the HSR to attend a WorkSafe approved initial course of training in OHS after being elected and a refresher course at least once each year. The course to be attended by the HSR must be chosen by the HSR in consultation with their employer.
