Health and Safety Representative Refresher Occupational Health and Safety Training Course

1-Day course of training

The Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 (s67) makes provision for Health and Safety Representatives to attend a one day refresher course once in each year. This course is approved by WorkSafe Victoria as refresher training under the Act. It will provide participants with the opportunity to update their health and safety knowledge including any changes to the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 and the Occupational Health and Safety Regulations 2017.

The topics covered include:

Interpreting the OHS legislative framework and its relation to the HSR	Identifying key parties and their legislative obligations and duties
Establishing representation in the workplace	Participating in consultation & issue resolution
Representing designated work group members in any OHS risk management process undertaken by employers	Exercising the powers of a HSR under the OHS Act

Who would benefit from attending this course:

Health and Safety Representatives and Deputy Health and Safety Representatives. Although HSRs are the primary audience for this course, managers, supervisors and health and safety committee members will also benefit from attending this course.

Training entitlement:

An employer must if requested by a HSR (or deputy HSR) allow the HSR to attend a WorkSafe approved initial course of training in OHS after being elected and a refresher course at least once each year. The course to be attended by the HSR must be chosen by the HSR in consultation with their employer.

All our public training courses are conducted at the Amora Riverwalk Hotel Training Centre at 649 Bridge Road Richmond.

Participants are provided with lunch at the Amora Restaurant and free parking is available on site.

All training fees shown are inclusive of 10% GST.
